Pastor's Corner

We continue praying for Russia, and today's emphasis is the youth, lured by rapidly growing materialistic culture, Russian version of free-enterprise, rule of oligarchs – their interest is in secular pursuits, pleasure and quick money. Pray for spiritual revival of basic godliness. Pray for existent churches to drop traditionalism and embrace seekers.

AIDS epidemic in major cities is reaching catastrophic proportions, homeless population is growing, alcoholism is "national disaster" – highest world rates of alcohol induced diseases, also contributing to violence. High rate of human trafficking and slavery of children is also a concern of human rights activists. Pray for God's protection of people and opportunities of hope in Russia.

Monday prayer is a special focus is on Islamist republics within the Russian federation where religious freedom is oppressed and evangelical Christian churches are often persecuted. Pray also for acceptance of simple Gospel and openness for seeking truth among traditional Russian orthodox population, which sees the religion as a part of culture and ethnic identity. Many migrants from Central Asia work in Russia. Pray for Christians to show Christ's love to them and witness in the face of racism. Increasing gap between impoverished and rich also negatively affects the Gospel work. Pray for social justice in Russia.

Tuesday we pray for Saudi Arabia, where officially no Adventists are present. The country is the birthplace of Islam, and most recently of Wahhabism - the most radical militant and conservative branch of Islam. 12th largest territory in the world, it is a kingdom run by Saudi family, contains 25% of world's oil reserves, hence the economic influence. Saudi Arabia's record on religious freedom and human rights is notorious and probably the world's worst. Abuses occur through a corrupt judicial system and through aggressive and ubiquitous religious police (mutaween) who operate with minimal accountability and the government's acquiescence. Pray for freedom of faith and witness.

Wednesday we lift in prayer a small island of St. Barthelemy with only 9,300 population. Once a Swedish colony (the only one in Caribbean), today it is French territory, located between Puerto Rico & St.Kitts. It's population is 95% white Caucasian, and are established in wealth. A playground for rich and famous, beachfront villas going at price of 80 million, and over 200,000 tourists, it is a tough place for mission work. Pray for missional outreach of churches

Thursday we pray for St.Helena, an isolated island in Atlantic between Brazil and Africa. There are lack of jobs and families are affected as many are forced to work on British military bases as far as Falklands.

Friday we lift in prayer two islands, a federation of St.Kitts & Nevis. North Leeward islands close to Aruba they are vastly different. First has a reputation for drug trafficking and money laundering for criminals, whereas the second has the highest percentage of church goers! These were first European colonies in West Indies. Both need revival, where teen pregnancies out of wedlock are high, and half of households are led by a single mother. Pray for the church to be the stronghold of family values and truth.
