Pastor's Corner

This week we pray for countries that may not be known to many, as they are small in population and size, yet these are distinct cultures where the Gospel must be also preached. Two of these currently have no Adventist presence.

Today we pray for Saint Lucia, known as the most beautiful island of the Caribbean. First settled by French (80% still speak French Creole) then English the island is autonomous today. High influence is held by the Catholic church (70%) The very next church by size is the Seventh-day Adventist (8%). Pray for church witness to be the source of righteousness and revival. The main prayer request is restoration of family values., for the Word to be practiced and applied in lives of believers.

Tomorrow we lift in prayer St. Martin, both French north part and Dutch south Sint Maarten. On September 6, 2017 the island was hit by Category 5 Hurricane Irma, which caused widespread and significant damage to buildings and infrastructure. Main need is unity among churches and spiritual revival of believers.

Monday we pray for Saint Pierre and Miquelon, a self-governing territorial collectivity of France, located near Canada, southern coast of Newfoundland, near the Grand Banks. It is the only remnant of the former colonies that remains under French control. Predominantly Catholic it only recently received Evangelical fellowship. A Baptist church opened up in 1998. Pray for an Adventist mission work to reach the island.

On Tuesday we will lift St. Vincent & Grenadine islands in the Caribbean. Seventh-day Adventists are the second largest religious community after Anglican church there. Pray for integrity of leadership and transformational influence of the church on society.

Wednesday we lift in prayer Samoa, where Christianity entered a century ago. Initially this island was sending missionaries to other Pacific islands. Now, the rivalry between denominations turned churches inward and the fastest growing is the Mormon church. Adventists are 6th in size and significance. Pray for true Gospel to shine forth, and for truth seekers.

Thursday we lift in prayer San Marino, a small city state (33,000 people) in the Northern Italy. Catholic dominance forbids evangelical witness by jailing and expelling. There are few Waldensian believers, few JW's, and no Adventists. Pray for openness among people and search for truth.

Friday we pray for Sao Tome & Principe, islands west of Gabon near cost of Africa. It is a second smallest African country after Seychelles. Formerly Portuguese colony, majority are Catholic, but morality is far from Christian. Statistics show 90% of children are born out of wedlock, especially island of Principe needs Christian witness and mission.

Continue praying for the Gospel to be preached in every corner of this world, for Jesus to come soon.
