Pastor's Corner

Impartation For Evangelism

We live in the day and age of extremes. To many people going bungee-jumping, spelunking (cave exploring), or even rollercoaster ride is just another extreme sport. And to many it would be less frightening than doing evangelism. What about you? On a scale of 1 to 10 how afraid are you to do evangelism? This could be the only reason why so few have signed commitment cards, and so few have joined the evangelism preparation team.

At our Wednesday morning prayer meeting we asked that God would remove our fears. After all, the Book of Revelation says for a reason that fearful will not get to the Kingdom of heaven (Revelation 21:8). It lists fearful, cowardly together with unbelievers. Honestly,

Evangelism is frightening. And it should be, because evangelism is the spiritual warfare. It is about getting people out from captivity of evil, and if you attempt to do it on your own – you better be afraid!

Let me ask you, did Jesus do Evangelism, all alone, by himself? Jesus Christ, the original and the greatest evangelist who ever walked this earth – he had disciples to go before him, to work with him. Most important, Jesus worked by and with and from the Holy Spirit. If we attempt to do evangelism – it is the Holy Spirit that we need. When we attempt Evangelism, we are promised that the Holy Spirit will be working ahead of us, and his presence will be with us. But we cannot impart to others what we do not have.

As we talk about Evangelism, we recognize that new people will look for friendship and community, yet it is not what they come for. Many will leave long lasting friendships to join the new community of faith not for the sake of a new friendship, but for more, much more – for spirituality. Evangelism is about offering people what they need and will not receive anywhere else – the revelation of Loving God, the Spirit of Living Water. That is possible only when we, as God revealers, God's representative receive the Holy Spirit in our lives. (John 7:38-39).

So this imparting, which is necessary before demonstration and delegation, is more than information transmission, more than teaching. It is giving the Spirit. Just as Jesus gave us his peace, joy, life, He continues to give us His Spirit (John 20:22).

No doubt the Holy Spirit is working in your life, convicting you of sin, pointing out to righteousness and the Judgment (John 16:8). No doubt the Holy Spirit is sustaining and protecting you always. But it is not given until you obey, until you consecrate yourself in full obedience to God's commands (Acts 5:32). Only then the church as people will be truly motivated, only then we will possess the power to make Christ known in our community.

This year we are examining what we believe. Yet intellectual ascent is not faith. It is about practical trust, trusting that God will do what He had promised, and that requires conversion of giving up self. We all need deeper conversion, both, within the community of church, and facilitating conversion of outsider in secular community. And that is possible only by imparting the Holy Spirit.
